Independent Men Own Real Estate

Owners of Real Estate don't worry about losing their investments. They're safe. Owners of real estate don't worry about the fluctuation of the markets. Their investments will go up in value, and they know it.

The man who owns his farm in Box Butte county never worries about the high cost of living. He has a steady income and the steady increase in the price of land makes him a big profit on the amount invested. One Alliance man, who owns land in Box Butte county, figures that his land increased $28,000 in value during the past 12 months.

Here is a bargain: 320 acres, 7 miles from Alliance, near Berea. Level and slightly rolling. Partly under cultivation. A snap for $60 per acre, on easy terms. Ask us about it.

The man who owns his home is not worried about the increase in rents. Here is a snap: 6-room modern home, in best residence district. A bargain for $7,000, on easy terms.
